

Asks $80,000 For Loss Of Son's Toe

A Niles father filed suit claiming $80,000 damages for the loss of his son's little toe and a Niles couple claims $40,000 from a deceased Benton Harborite following a highway crash in 1965 in suits filed Friday in Berrien Circuit court.

John E. Fink, through Niles Atty. Donald Stone, claims a total of $80,000 damages from the Jiger Corp., with an agent in Detroit, for the alleged loss of his son's right little toe and other foot injuries in a Sept. 10, 1967, alleged mishap.

Fink claims the boy's foot contacted a sprocket drive in a Jiger six-wheel rough country vehicle while he rode in the vehicle.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Jankovic of Niles, through Atty. Robert Cary, claim a total of $40,000 from a deceased Benton Harborite, William H. Ringler, for injuries the Jankoviacs allege they suffered when their car and Ringler's car collided on July 18, 1965, in Niles township.
